Business Retention, Succession Planning and Employee Ownership Small businesses are closing. Businesses founded in our Wisconsin communities are not being retained. Succession planning is a critical economic development activity, but succession planning alone is not a guarantee of business retention in your community. How a business owner exits is a core piece of a Business Retention program. An important piece that is very often missed. Learn about key succession planning elements and how using employee ownership (EO) such as ESOPs, is a key win-win succession program for the owner, employees, and community. Hear first-hand from a company retained in their community via employee ownership. Moderator: Speakers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ryan Kauth, Executive Director, WI Center for Employee Ownership • Jean Bergner, Advocacy Committee Chair, WI Chapter of ESOP Association • Timm Boettcher, CEO, RealityWorks Sponsored by:  2. Bridging the Divide: Optimizing Hiring Practices for Military Talent Explore strategies to enhance your recruitment process and effectively attract military veterans. This session tackles common barriers, such as unclear job descriptions, the translation of military skills to civilian roles and the lack of visible career progression, offering actionable solutions to make your organization a preferred choice for veteran applicants. Moderator: Speaker: Zach Zabel, Vice President, Wisconsin Veterans Chamber of Commerce
