

Redevelopment of Brownfield Properties Learning Sessions for Local Governments

Following the in-person sessions, participants will:

- Know what a brownfield property is
- Be able to identify redevelopment opportunities in their community
- Know what funding is available to assist local governments
- Learn about relevant liability protections and exemptions for local governments
- See successful examples of redevelopment from other communities

To register for one of the sessions, contact Thomas.Coogan@wisconsin.gov by Nov. 7, 2024.
